

Mission:

To preserve, research, archive, educate, promote, and provide access to artifacts, recordings, and stories of Indiana music; to honor those individuals, artists, and organizations who have contributed, to educate Hoosiers and other interested individuals as to the significance of our music history, and help them develop greater pride in our state's accomplishments in the field of music.

An initiative of the Indiana Entertainment Foundation

Thank you to our sponsors:

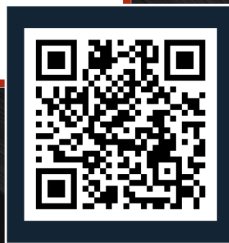

LJ WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Visit The Indiana Music History Project Gallery
Free and open to the public M-F 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Indiana Music History Project

Flanner and Buchanan, Lower Level
1305 Broad Ripple Ave.
Indianapolis, IN 46220

indianafound.org

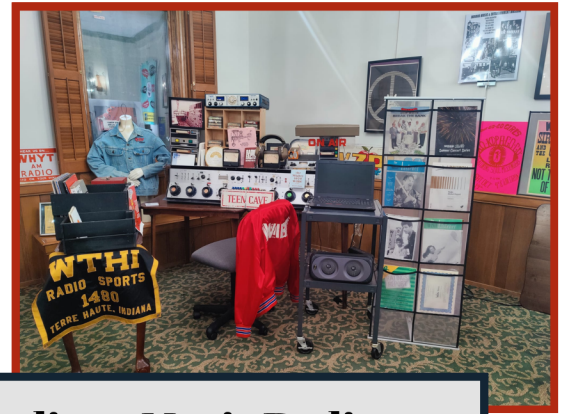

Indiana Musicpedia

An online resource dedicated to documenting all Indiana musicians, artists, recordings, and music businesses from the earliest days of recorded history to the present.

VIEW

Indiana Music Radio

A streaming radio station featuring 100% Indiana music recordings across all genres, localities, and time frames.

LISTEN

Indiana Music Collection & Digital Archive

We are trying to obtain copies of every Indiana music release on LP, 45, cassette, CD, and 78, along with music posters, flyers, and memorabilia related to Indiana music. We are also digitizing the physical music collection and building an archive of images and recordings, which will be online and accessible to the public.

SUBSCRIBE

Gennett Suite

We are the fiscal sponsor and promotional partner for the Gennett Suite project, an original composition by Brent Wallarab based on 1920's recordings at Richmond's Gennett Studios. The Gennett Suite is available on compact disc, vinyl LP, and digitally.

SHOP

Hoagy Carmichael Award for Excellence in Jazz Composition

Inaugurated in 2022, the award is a $3,000 scholarship provided to a selected Indiana University jazz student, in association with the family of Hoagy Carmichael. We are the fiscal sponsor and promotional partner.

DONATE

